4. You can enter the search term on the search bar and select the required field from the library catalogue dropdown list. You may also select the location by clicking on the “all Libraries” dropdown list.

5. You will get the results according to your search term.

Please follow the instructions below to “Reserve a Library Books”

1. If the book status is “checked out” only, you can click “place hold” for your reservation.

The screenshot shows a library catalog interface for the book "Criminal law". The page includes a search bar at the top, navigation links, and a detailed view of the book. The book's status is "Checked out", and a "Place hold" button is visible in the right-hand menu. A red circle highlights the "Place hold" button, and an arrow points from it to the "Status" column in the holdings table, which also has a red circle around it.
